Edwardian Children's Day

The Art Gallery of South Australia invites all children to step back in time and enjoy an afternoon as a young Edwardian on Sunday 22 August. Edwardian Children's Day is a free event jam-packed with themed activities and entertainment in celebration of the Gallery's stunning exhibition, The Edwardians: Secrets & Desires.

Between midday and 3pm on the day, children can take part in free art and craft, listen as storytellers weave tales from Edwardian classics such as Peter Rabbit and Wind in The Willows or lie back and watch film favourites Peter Pan, Mary Poppins and Chitty Chitty Bang Bang. Punch and Judy shows will add to the excitement and children can join in games of snakes and ladders or try their hand at quoits. Plus, families receive discounted entry to the exhibition all day. At this Edwardian afternoon there is something for everyone, including old-fashioned lemonade and cakes for the little ones and best of all, it's free!

FREE Edwardian Children's Day. Sunday 22 August 12 noon – 3 pm.

Art Gallery of South Australia. North Terrace Adelaide.

All children must be accompanied by an adult.
