

Make the short trip to North Terrace, and you could end up in Tasmania!

Visitors to the major new art exhibition John Glover and the Colonial Picturesque are in for a double treat – not only will they see some of the most beautiful paintings of colonial Tasmania on display, they could be in the running for a trip for two to see the real thing.

The “Zoom-Zoom to Tasmania” competition is organised by Mazda, Principal Sponsor of the exhibition. Up for grabs are return economy airfares to Hobart flying Qantas, 2 nights’ accommodation at the Wrest Point Tower, Hobart and car hire for 3 days.

Discover for yourself the landscapes which inspired John Glover; ‘the father of Australian landscape painting’. To put yourself in the picture visit the John Glover and the Colonial Picturesque exhibition today at the Art Gallery of South Australia, North Terrace.

JOHN GLOVER AND THE COLONIAL PICTURESQUE

19 February – 12 April 2004

Organised by the Tasmanian Museum & Art Gallery and Art Exhibitions Australia

Media contact: Miranda Starke, Public Relations Manager

Phone 08 8207 7032 or 0409 919 510 Email: starke.miranda@saugov.sa.gov.au
North Terrace Adelaide SA 5000 www.artgallery.sa.gov.au