

Art Gallery open as usual this Friday

The Art Gallery of South Australia will be open 10am until 5pm and operating as usual during the PSA strike on Friday 26 March.

All non-PSA staff will be working as normal; this includes all staff responsible for the Gallery's security, guided tours, exhibition ticketing and general information services. The Gallery's Café and Bookshop will also be unaffected by the strike action. The Gallery anticipates that a number of its staff members will be taking part in the strike, however this will affect administrative operations only. No services to the public will be affected.
