

Easter at the Art Gallery

The Art Gallery of South Australia will be open from 10am to 5pm every day over the Easter holiday weekend with special events for people of all ages to enjoy

Good Friday with Bishop Ian George at 11am & 2pm

Spend an inspiring morning or afternoon with Bishop Ian George as he returns to lead his famous and much-anticipated Easter tours through the Gallery, speaking about key religious and spiritual works of art. Tours leave from North Terrace entrance Friday 21 March at 11am and 2pm. Free.

Good Friday Corinthian Singers at 1pm

Come and listen to the wonderful and uplifting voices of the Corinthian Singers in a special Good Friday concert in the Radford Auditorium. Friday 21 March at 1pm. Free.

Holy Saturday with Bishop Ian George & Father Anthony Kain at 1:30pm

Bishop Ian George and Father Anthony Kain present short lectures, conversations and a workshop, all exploring the divine in art. Tickets $30, $15 Members, inclusive of refreshments. Book at www.artgallery.sa.gov.au/currentevents or phone 8207 7050. From 1:30 – 4:30pm on Saturday 22 March.

Holy Saturday Easter Trail for Kids from 12 – 3pm

The Easter Bunny and Bilby have been in to help the Gallery celebrate Easter. Hop along to the North Terrace entrance to pick up your self-guided Easter trail and take a special tour of the Gallery. When you have finished, return and pick up your Easter treat! Saturday 22 March 12 – 3pm. Free.

Easter Sunday Fun for Families from 12 – 3pm

Bring the family for a day of fun! Children can come and create an Easter basket and paper collage with a special Easter treat. For ages 5 – 10. Function Room 2 from 12 – 3pm on Sunday 23 March. Free. Then join us for an Eye Spy tour and discover the amazing new works of art in the Adelaide Biennial. For ages 5 – 10. Meet Eye Spy guides at the Biennial entrance at 2pm on Sunday 23 March. $5 for Life Membership to Eye Spy Club.

2008 Adelaide Biennial of Australian Art: Handle with Care

Showing daily: See the fragile state of our world as explored by twenty-two of the nation's most innovative artists. Handle with Care presents diverse responses to contemporary issues, from anxiety over nature and the environment, to the erosion of cultural traditions. Works on display include paintings, sculpture, installation and film, and use mediums as diverse as water, light, organic material and glass. Free admission. Guided tours: 12 noon every day over Easter.

Public Information: Phone 8207 7000 or visit www.artgallery.sa.gov.au

Media contact: Miranda Starke – 8207 7032 or 0409 919 510