

Volunteer Policy

The Art Gallery of South Australia, at its discretion, accepts volunteers who are enthusiastic and committed to the Gallery's programs and goals. The Gallery undertakes to provide appropriate management and training of volunteers. Volunteers must agree to work under the direction of the Gallery, consistent with its regulations and policies. The use of volunteers is governed by government and union guidelines. Volunteers should not be used for tasks normally undertaken by paid staff. Unsatisfactory voluntary work and/or inappropriate behaviour may result in dismissal.

The Gallery is subject to the Government's guidelines with respect to equal opportunity, occupational health and safety, Workcover and indemnity, and applies these guidelines to the work of staff and volunteers.
